CELEBRATING 50 YEARS IN OTAKI

In 1974, John Mowbray purchased a building in Otaki (for $6,000) and shifted his stamp business from Wellington. In the first year, with a staff of two and with very few local collectors, it quickly became obvious that customers outside the region were required for the business to grow its small postal auction business.

The wider the business looked for new customers, the better the result. It was as easy to sell to someone in Australia, United Kingdom or USA as to someone local. The business quickly grew, and Otaki was ideal. A good post office, printing company and lower costs worked well.

In 1984, the company had completely outgrown its original premises so a 2500m² property on the Main Highway was purchased. With 25,000 cars a day passing through, it soon became a local landmark with the business becoming well known throughout New Zealand.

Today, we celebrate 50 Years in Otaki with our staff of 16. We are the largest stamp and coin dealers in New Zealand, and 50% of our business is to overseas clients. Proof indeed that a successful international business can thrive in a small rural town.

To all our staff, former staff, customers, suppliers, and the local Kapiti Coast community, thank you for your support of Mowbray Collectables these past 50 Years.

We look forward to the coming years with the confidence of this milestone.

A 50th Anniversary discount of up to $50 applies to all successful bidders for this sale only!
